સમદાય

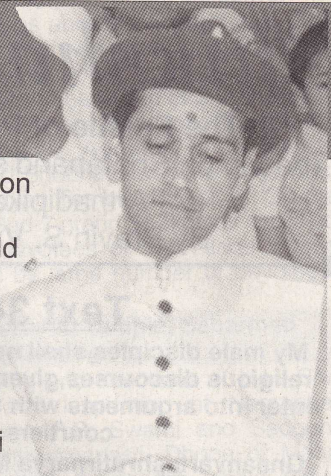

Almighty Lord Shreeji Maharaj has incarnated on this earth in human form and has granted us the gift of Satsang- which is in fact a means of welfare and emancipation of all the souls of this universe. Shreeji Maharaj used to say, "Oh saints, look at our Life." It is also sung in Pad of Premanand Swami, "હું તો તમકારણે રે આવ્યો ધામથી ધરી દેહ". On the pious day of Chaitra Sud-9 let us introspect and ask a question to ourselves, "Whether I have looked at the Life of Shreeji Maharaj as directed by the Almighty Lord?" Shreeji Maharaj and Nand Saints and elder devotees of our Sampradaya have worked hard with pain, suffered and tolerated insult and offered us the gift of Satsang. We should think about only one thought in her heart, "Whether I have identified and recognized this Satsang granted by the Almighty Lord and the saints? Whether I have realized Lord in my life?"

There is no end of knowing about this Satsang and Shreeji Maharaj. Therefore we should know the importance of Dev-Acharya-Saint-Scriptures and should performed Satsang-Darshan-Bhakti-Seva etc. and we would feel the divine pleasure of Akshardham. A person who does not look at the mirror though standing in front of him, cannot get the image of his own self, Similarly if a person does not look into himself through this Satsang then he cannot recognize and understand himself and the real purpose of his life and he cannot get Darshan of either Akshardham or Shreeji Maharaj. So let us understand the tradition of our Sampradaya and its importance and start worshipping Almighty Shreeji Maharaj ardently.

The year beginning from this day to Falgun Sud-3 (08/03/2011) is really a Divine year for all Satsangi devotees. With the directions of H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj and H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj, this year is to be celebrated as 'Museum Year'. Let us perform special Bhajan-Bhakti in our house and in our temples during this pious year. Let us organize grand Satsang Sabha and perform Bhakti and Kirtan. Let us organize grand festivals during this year and render our services because this are the directions of Shreeji Maharaj for all of us. So let us render our services with mind, body and money during this Great Festive Occasion of our Sampradaya and obtain pleasure of Shreeji Maharaj and H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj.

The Epistle of Precepts

(based on Shatanand's Shikshapatri Arthadipika)

By Pravin S. Varsani

Text 34

My male disciples shall never listen to the religious discourses given by females, nor enter into arguments with female rulers and courtiers.

Gnaanvartashrutirnarya Mukhat Karya Na Purushauha |

Men (Purushauha) shall never (Karya) listen to religious discourses of Shastras (Gnaan-Varta-Shruti) from the face (Mukhat) of women (Narya). Thus knowledge of Atma-Paramatma as well as the supreme knowledge outlined in Bhagwat Gita should never be listened to.

Shatanand here explains that religious discourses (Varta) and supreme knowledge (Gnaan) are the very form of God- that is, they are tools through which the very form and nature of God can be understood. Here 'Varta' includes 'Katha' as well as singing of God's praise and so Varta should be understood in this wider context.

Our Shastras have gone into great depth to segregate the sexes at the association of the two can lead to the mind to wander and thus become weak. Dharma Sangraha goes further to say, 'Males should not sing with women, sleep with women, walk with women nor ever listen to discourses by women.'

Shrimad Bhagwat provides a reason for this segregation, 'Man becomes deluded, weak and obsessed at times of association with women. Such behaviour is not evident in other situations. The over powering nature of Maya (illusion) becomes overwhelming and difficult to control and so he is left bewildered unable to subdue his urges for the woman. This results in a man's foundation of Dharma to become fragmented and thus destroyed.'

'How can a man be undisturbed by a woman's charming face which is like that of the lustrous Sharad Rutu (the season marking the end of monsoon season)? How can he remain unaffected by her nectar-like voice so sweet to the ears? How can he be safe when her heart is like that of a sharp razor? Who can fully understand such a woman and her gestures? She is able to entice even the purest and willful of men and reduce them to foolishness.' Thus none can escape the hypnotic nature of a woman.

Rasgangadhar explains, 'Puranas, Shastras and Smrutis have been created through pure thought and therefore it's teaching of purity of culture and livelihood will stay pure only whilst the mind and thought is pure, which will exist only if the lustful thoughts of women are not able to enter a man's mind.'

Bhartruhari says, 'Even those who understand Shastras, their teachings upon and who have knowledge of Atma, find it difficult to reach the heavens. The reason being that one's eyes may fall upon a woman, which will open the doorway to Narak (hell).'

Prabodh Chandroday Natak teaches, 'The disciplines in Shastras that exists within the minds of Great men will stay just as long as the sight of that woman with lotus like eyes does not befall upon him.' Vidurji has explained, 'Just as a stone sinks when thrown into a river, a man is sure to sink into ruin in the company of women.' In this way, Shastras have explained the weakness of men in the company of women. Therefore it is forbidden to associate even at times of Dharma Karyaas such as Katha Varta, Sabhas etc. and so even sitting together in Sabhas is forbidden as the mind and self are just as vulnerable at these times as they are at others.

Na Vivadaha Streeya Karyo Rajna Na Cha Tajjanaiha ||

The Lord forbids 'Vivaada' with women. Vivaada can be interpreted as either a discussion of controversy or a dispute/quarrel. Similarly Shatanand forbids 'Virudhvaada' that is, unnecessary talks or discussions. Swami explains that a woman is burdened by a foolish nature – Murkhoparnu and those men that needlessly associate with women falling into discussions with them are also cursed with such foolishness.

Indeed Lord Mahadev points out seven bad qualities that women possess, which man can acquire through needless associations with such women"

Need of Satsang

Bhagwan Swaminarayan incarnated on this earth with many Muktas. Some these Muktas took Diksha and some became Grihasthi Haribhaktas. Shree Hari took thousands of saints and Bhaktas with him and moved all around and showed to the thousands of people the path of emancipation. When the saints were performing Satsang-Vicharan in various countries as per the directions of Shree Hari, then some people used to abuse them. Many times, these saints were also harassed mentally as well as physically. But these saints used to tolerate all these tortures and continued with their noble mission of preaching sermons even at the risk of their safety and life.

Through their great sacrifice, these saints have prepared for us a beautiful garden of Satsang and while remaining in this garden we are required to make our life religious and more meaningful. If we cherish the same love and affection in Bhagwan Swaminarayan, as we cherish for our family members, wife and children then it becomes real worship and we would certainly get emancipation in our life. We should be very firm in our worship and trust in Satsang even during the time of crisis. We should not be swayed away from our righteous path of Satsang and Bhakti. Many saints cite this example of Shival Sheth showing how one can worship Almighty Bhagwan.

Shival Sheth was an ardent devotee and Satsangi of Bhagwan Swaminarayan. He belonged to village Botad of Bhavnagar district and was also a Minister of the King of the State of Bhavnagar. He was very happy in his life and as and when any saint would grace his village Botad, Shival Sheth would invariably attend the Sabha of the saint and would perform Bhajan, Bhakti and Darshan.

Once Krupanand Swami graced the village Botad. It was the time of evening. When the devotees came to know about the arrival of Krupanand Swami in Botad, they thronged together in the Sabha to listen the Katha from Swami. Shival Sheth did not about the arrival of Swami in Botad. Sheth returned home in the evening. His wife did not tell him about the arrival of Swami lest he would not stop even to take the dinner and would rush to perform Darshan of Swami. His wife prepared and offered a dish of meals to Shival Sheth. After the meals, Sheth was sitting in the verandah. Then his wife informed him about the arrival of Swami in Botad. Immediately Sheth got ready and went to Sabha hastily. The Sabha was yet not started. Sheth took his seat silently without any disturbance to anybody. Shival Sheth was relishing Mukhvaas in his mouth. This created disturbance in the pin-drop silence of the Sabha. Swami got angry and asked who was creating the disturbance. Shival Sheth realized that, he disturbed the protocol of Sabha. Sheth got up and begged pardon of Swamiji.

But angry Swami asked Shival Sheth to immediately leave the Sabha as he did not have any right to sit in the Sabha anymore. Sheth bowed down at the feet of Swami and begged his pardon and assured that in future such mistake would not occur. But Swamiji did not give in. when Shival Sheth ardently requested to permit him to attend the Sabha, Swamiji asked him to go in the distance corner where all the Bhaktas had left their foot-ware and from there he could attend the Sabha. Shival Sheth followed the directions of Swamiji and took his seat in a distant corner.

Swami stayed for two months in Botad and Shival Sheth listened to his Katha for two months while sitting near the foot-ware of all Haribhaktas. While leaving Botad, Swami was very much pleased with the ardent faith and worship of Shival Sheth. Swami embraced Shival Sheth happily. Swami asked him whether he did not feel like leaving the place of Sabha. Shival Sheth replied that, he did feel but he thought that, he would get name and fame but not so great Satsang as it is available from the saints like him and therefore he convinced himself in favour of performing Satsang. Really great is Shival Sheth and greater is ardent faith and worship of Bhagwan.

Bhakti

- Sadhu Vrajbushandas Gūru Swami Shyamsundardasji (Haridwar)

In Aranyakand of Ramayan, Tulsidasji writes:

“કહ રઘુપતિ સુનુ ભામિનિ બાતા,
માનઉ એક ભગતિ કર નાતા
જાતિ પોતિ કુલ ધર્મ બડાઈ,
ધન બલ પરિજન ગુન ચતુરાઈ,
ભગતિ હીન નર સોહઈ કેસા,
બિનું જલ બારિદ દેખિય જેસા”

Lord Shree Rama tells the great devotee Shabri that, He recognizes only one relation and that of Bhakti. He does not recognize the high-caste and low-caste. A person who belongs to high caste family, is very religious and having good qualities but if he does not have any worship and Bhakti then it is like a dry lake without any water. Mere noble qualities without Bhakti are not good.

A person who wishes emancipation without Bhakti does not succeed in his desire. Bhakti is at the root of all happiness in human life. Bhakti is also known as 'Manjar-Nyaya'. Just as a cat holds its kitten in her mouth and keeps on changing its residence from one place to another. Here her objective is the safety and protection of the kitten. The sole responsibility of protection and safety of these kitten lies with the cat and not with the kitten. Similarly sole responsibility of the Bhakta worshipping ardently lies with the Almighty God and not with the Bhakta. Therefore Lord Krishna has stated in 22nd Adhyay of 8th Skanda of Bhagwat: “હું જેના પર કૃપા કરું છું તેનું સર્વસ્વ લઈ લઉં છું.” In the path of Bhakti, responsibility of Bhakta lies with the Almighty God. And therefore Bhakti is known as 'Manjar-Nyaya'.

Once Devarshi Narad went to perform Darshan of Lord Vishnu. The Lord was busy with some work and therefore Nardaji waited outside. Meanwhile Naradaji saw a big diary. Naradaji opened the diary and looked into it. Naradaji found one heading 'List of devotees who perform my Bhakti'. Naradaji became curious to know about the names of such devotees. The first name was of Naradji himself. Naradaji felt proud, he went away from the place. He informed everyone he met on the way that his name was first in the list of devotees who perform God's Bhakti. On his way Naradaji saw Hanumanji, who was worshipping Lord Shree Rama. Naradaji recalled the list, and remembered that there was no name of Hanumanji in the said list. Naradji informed Hanumanji that, his name was in the list of the devotees of the diary of God. Hanumanji smiled and informed Naradaji that,

Almighty God also keeps one personal diary in his pocket; have you looked into that personal diary?

Naradji was surprised to listen to this. He immediately rushed to Lord Vishnu and asked him about His personal Diary. Lord Vishnu took out His personal diary and gave it to Naradji. Naradji opened the diary and looked into it. Naradji found one heading 'List of devotees whom I worship'. And in this list, the name of Hanumanji was at the top; surprisingly name of Naradji was not there in this list. When Naradji asked its reason to Lord Vishnu. Lord Vishnu told Naradji that, the first diary is of the devotees who worship Me to show others that he is worshipping. And the other diary is of the devotees who worship Me to please Me.

So we have to decide in which diary we want our name to be included. Gunatitanand Swami has said, "Bhakti is like a Sanjivani Medicine." It heals and cures everyone. In Vachanamrit-10 of Gadhda Middle Chapter, Shreeji Maharaj has stated that there is divinity in Gyan and Vairagya but it is not equivalent to the divinity of Bhakti because divinity of Bhakti is the supreme among the all.

Ramkrishna Paramhansa used to tell that just as a child holds the finger of his father in a big fair so that he is not lost in the fair. Now during the fair, many relatives and friends happen to meet and at such meetings, there are chances of the child being lost. Now if a mature child also holds the finger of his father and a loose end of the Sari of his mother, then he does not get lost. Similarly if a devotee may have held the finger of the father called Gyan and the loose end of Sari of his mother called Bhakti then he would never get lost in the ocean of this world. Therefore it is advisable to be always with Bhakti:

“ભવસાગરમાં ભક્તિ હરિની, ઉગરવાનો આરોજ,
તે વિના ઉપાધિ બીજી, વેઠ તરીકે ધારો જ”

Con. on page 4

Shikshapatri

- (i) Anrutam—untruthfulness
- (ii) Sahasam—rashness
- (iii) Maya—illusory
- (iv) Murkhaatvamati—foolishness
- (v) Lobhitam—selfishness
- (vi) Asaucham—impure and
- (vii) Nirdaitvam

Similarly one should never fall into needless arguments of talks with Kings and Courtiers and persons associated with the King. Shatanand explains that 'Cha' is used by the Lord to suggest that needless arguments with one's parents be similarly forbidden. Brahanmanu has written 'One should not even speak unnecessarily in a fit of anger with a woman, a King, a King's associate, a sustainer such as an employer, a Satsangi, an elder, a child, the ill, a Guru, an Acharya and those who are learned such as doctors.'

These persons are to be always respected and never to be insulted by falling into useless unnecessary arguments or discussions with.

Note that much of what has been said may be offensive to women. These aren't repressive words to down cast women but what Shastras say are the absolute truth and the fact is that minds are weak leading to all sorts of behaviour in the company of the opposite sex.

The Lord has not forbid women from becoming educated and the learning of Vedantic Gnaan, nor from preaching about God. In the Swaminarayan Sampradai, these qualities are encouraged in women, with the proviso that their knowledge be directed to only other women in the Sampradai—that is, they preach never to men.

Lord Swaminarayan initiated women into the Sampradai via the Acharya's wives, some of which were Sankha Yogis who renounced all in order to serve God. Their whole purpose was to preach to women and to perform Katha Varta upon Shastras to women. In India, where temples are separate for men and women, women look after the entire temple affairs performing Katha Varta, Pooja etc. thus in no way are women looked upon as secondary in this Sampradai.

The directives here are for the benefit of mankind. It is fact that lapses can be caused through associations with women and indeed can change a devout, pious man into one that disregards God totally and for this reason, this directive is enforced fully so that man is never led astray to unrighteousness. Gods and Great Rishi's have faltered in the midst of an alluring woman, what chance then have the likes of mere man in such instance?

Perform One More Mala

H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj

- Gordhanbhai V. Sitapara (Ahmedabad)

188th Patotsav of the Lord Shree Narnarayandev was celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm and in the pious company of H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj. In the Sabha organized on the occasion, in His blessings H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj stated that, atmosphere of this celebration is somewhat new and unique. At the time of invocation of the idol images of the Lord Shree Narnarayandev there was cold. Today also there was cold. Though Vasant Panchmi and Shivratri have gone, yet there is cold in the climate. H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj told that this is so because Lord Shree Narnarayandev has come from the Himalayas and has brought the cold with Him. In the first Sabha of Shree Narnarayandev temple at Ahmedabad the British Governor was present. Now British Member of Parliament Mr. Tony Mckenhary and Navin Shah (MLA) were present. It looked as if history was repeating itself.

There are directions to offer our services to the deities installed by Bhagwan himself and as per the time it is very difficult, yet we get an opportunity to touch the lotus like feet of Lord Shree Narnarayandev at least twice in a year. Every man demands something from Bhagwan. We have also demanded two things from the Lord Shree Narnarayandev. First at the time of Dwi-Shatabdi Utsav we had requested the Lord that it is His Mahotsav and therefore the Utsav should be celebrated and concluded in a very nice way. Accordingly Dwi-Shatabdi Utsav was celebrated and concluded very nicely. Now we demand that, Shree Swaminarayan Museum under preparation is also Your Museum, so inauguration function of Shree Swaminarayan Museum should also be celebrated and concluded in a very nice way. From today onwards every devotee should perform at least one more Mala in his daily worship because God is pleased with Worship and Bhakti. And Mahotsav would be celebrated in a very nice way. We talk about rendering our services with mind, body and money for Shree Swaminarayan Museum. It is our request to all the devotees that, they should render their services with mind first then services with body and money would follow automatically. Secondly we have demanded from Maharaj that serene and innocent love and affection among Acharya, Saints and Haribhaktas which is evidently found in Ahmedabad Desh may be preserved permanently.

Praising the devotion and Bhakti of the host devotee of Patotsav, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj also said that, one gentleman had visited the house of this devotee in London before five years. This gentleman had a habit of drinking tea without taking bath. When the gentleman saw a very small child of the host family, taking bath first and drinking milk later on; he was moved from within and from that day onwards he got rid of his habit of drinking tea before taking bath. This good quality of the host family developed through Satsang helped the gentleman to improve upon the quality of his life.

All the Three Other Forms of Shree Hari were very much pleased with the host family as well as all the devotees present in the Sabha and blessed them all. It is pertinent to note that, all the devotees of our Sampradaya, if they cherish genuine and ardent faith and Bhakti towards H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj, then they should scrupulously follow the directions of performing one more Mala in their daily Bhakti. Sometimes we get an opportunity to please the Almighty Lord and it is the quality of a devotee of Shree Hari to grab such an opportunity.

Divine Shree Swaminarayan Museum & H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj Shri Tejendraprasadji Maharaj

- Shastri Divyaprakashdasji Guru Mahant Shastri Swami Harikrishnadasji (Ahmedabad)

Our divine Acharya H.H. Shri Acharya Mota Maharaj Shri Tejendraprasadji Maharaj is a rare combination of all human noble qualities such Compassion, humanity, love and affection. There is also found a combination of divine Light from the deities Tej + Indra + Prasad in Him.

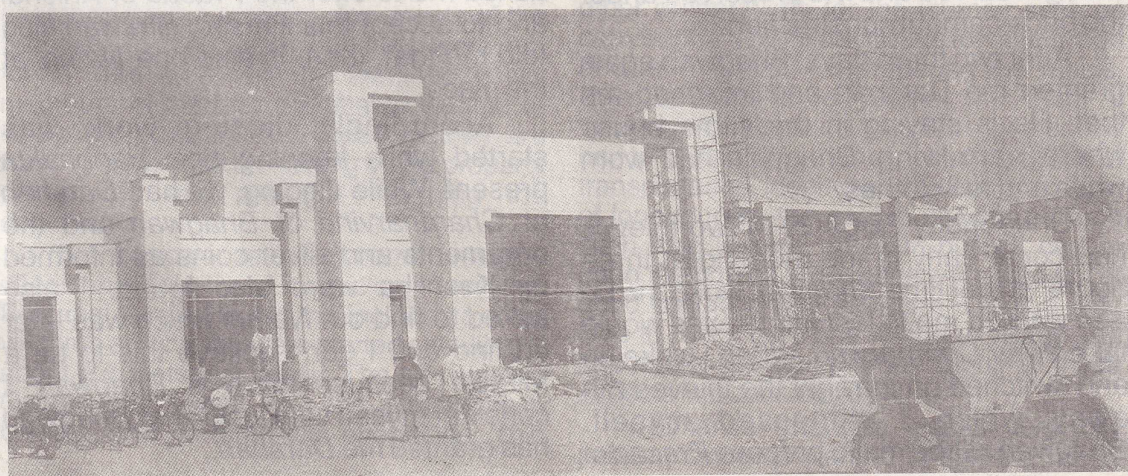

After retirement from the seat of Acharya of Shree Narnarayandev Desh, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj is busy with the noble activity of Shree Swaminarayan Museum. In spite of busy schedule, H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj graces the house of the devotees, and also attends various programmes of our Sampradaya such Parayan, Patotsav, Shakotsav, Invocation of idol images among many others. Even at the age of 66 years, Bhagwan has maintained his perfect health and therefore even today, a journey of many kilometers is performed to grace the houses of our devotees. Even today he is very punctual and perfect in observing the timings; one does not find deviation of even the seconds when H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj graces the temple for Shangaar Aarti of Shree Narnarayandev early in the morning. Just as Shreeji Maharaj has granted us great and divine gift for our welfare and emancipation, in the form of the Divine Seat of Dharmvanshi Acharya Maharaj, our H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj has granted us the divine gift in the form of Shree Swaminarayan Museum.

If H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj would have decided to undertake and complete Shree Swaminarayan Museum with a few very rich and wealthy devotees then it could have been accomplished quite earlier; but the noble aim of our H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj is that this Shree Swaminarayan Museum should be prepared and completed with the services of even a common devotee and it should have contribution from all the devotees and thereby H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj has granted all the devotees, an opportunity to render their services for this noble aim and Sankalp. So far many devotees have already rendered their services. This Museum would preserve all the Things of Prasadi which are not only divine but also the rare.

One finds divine light emitting from the face of our H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj and so is the case with our H.H. Shri Acharya Maharaj

Miracle of Shreeji Maharaj in Mahesana on Fagan Sud-3 Agiyaras Samvat 2066

(I got Darshan of Bhagwan. I, Vaibhav Harshadbhai Shah, Age: 21 years, residing at Joshi Ni Khadki, Mahesana (original resident of Dabhoi), Educational Qualification: M.Com. ICWA)

Before fifteen days, Bhagwan Swaminarayan granted me Darshan at midnight 12.10 hours in the dream. I did not know that He is Bhagwan but he introduced Himself to me. Bhawan had worn silver clothes but I did not believe in.

Thereafter second time, Kashaliba granted me Darshan at night, she had worn a white Sari. She showed me the wall wherein Charanarvind of Bhagwan were kept. She asked me to dig out the wall at the height of 1.25 ft from the surface and 3.5 ft from the ceiling. There were Charanarvind, Doro, Tiko, Silver Coins and Pendal inside the wall. I was asked to take them out on the day of Agiyaras. Charanarvind are placed inside the wall so that feet of no one can touch them. A marble stone Shila-lekh is also got carved and it is preserved under the brick-cement construction.

After two three days, Bhagwan again granted me Darshan and informed me that, He is staying in the same house where I am living. Bhagwan had worn white and red clothes.

On Monday 22/02/2010 two thieves had come early in the morning at three hours, at that time Bhagwan woke me up and warned me to lest the thieves would take away Charanarvind. When I woke up and switched on the light the thieves ran away which I witnessed myself. Bhagwan asked me to prepare Prasad of Khichdi, He showed me the place where Bhagwan had accepted the meals of Khichdi and also a place under a Neem tree where Bhagwan had conducted a Sabha. I was also granted Darshan of Sabha where Bhagwan was sitting and there were about one thousand saints in the Sabha. Bhagwan also showed me a river, where He had performed Datan and Snan. He also granted me Darshan of Bhawan accepting the Prasadi of Khichdi.

Today on the day of Agiyaras, Thursday 25/02/2010 it was decided to start the digging work early in the morning at 5.00 hours; but before that early in then morning at 3.30 hours, I had Darshan of Bhawan sitting on a horse, having golden and silver clothes and a Pagh upon His head. There was a luminous Light all around. Bhagwan asked me to do the digging work while keeping one Haribhakta of Sampradaya so that it can be believed. He also asked me to keep Charanarvind in Gokh so that everyone can have Darshan. He also asked me to offer the Prasad of Khichdi and to accept this Prasad. Bhawan also told me that, there is also one Nathni at the place.

Accordingly digging work was started while keeping one Haribhakta present. While digging, we had Darshan of Charanarvind of Bhagwan and the ornaments and silver coins as informed by Kashliba were also found. I also asked to find out Nathni which was later on find out. I don't believe this to be a Miracle because there is Bhagwan. I consider myself very lucky that Bhagwan has granted me Darshan.

SANT PARAM HITKARI

-Shastri Haripriyadas (Gandhinagar)

An incident occurred in village Umreth. This Umreth is situated near Nadiyad. Gopalanand Swami belonged to this village Umreth. One Haribhakta of the village used to lend money to other people as and when required by them. One day a person needed huge amount of money for the purpose of his business. He asked for Rs.5,000/- and he mortgaged with this Haribhakta the documents of his house. He said to Haribhakta that, if he fails to return the money then Haribhakta would become the owner of his house. Haribhakta agreed and gave him Rs.5,000/- and took the property documents and kept them in a safe place. No one of his house knew this fact. After some years, this Haribhakta passed away to Akshardham. The borrower of this Haribhakta earned much money during the period and now he was well off. He returned to his village, returned the borrowed money of Rs.5,000/- to the son of the late Haribhakta and asked him to return him his property documents. All the family members searched for the property documents of the borrower in the house but they were not found. The borrower felt that, the family members of the late Haribhakta wanted to usurp his property and therefore they are making an excuse of missing of the property documents and are not returning the documents.

The borrower returned home unhappy cherishing doubt and suspicion about this Satsangi family. He told this incident to other villagers and the villagers started speaking ill about this Satsangi family. The son went to Gopalanand Swami, who was at that time in Umreth, and narrated him everything. This great saint asked the son to go to Vaikunth to his father who was in Vaikunth with Amoghanandji. With the divine blessings of Gopalanand Swami, the son went to Vaikunth to his father and asked him the whereabouts the missing property documents. The father showed him location and the son returned. The son went home and found the documents at the same place. He called the borrower and handed over his property documents. Now the issue was resolved.

Friends! Our saints are having such divine powers but they never use them lavishly and recklessly. They use such powers when they perceive the noble intention of devotees, desire of the Almighty Lord, general interest involved in such matters and then only they use such divine powers.

ONE GOOD ADVICE

- Sadhu Shrirang Maharaj (Gandhinagar)

Dear friends! Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan has preached a beautiful sermon in 'Shiksha-Patri'. It is : "No one should perform any action, without giving any thought." A person who behaves recklessly, suffers a lot and this can be understood from this story.

During the ancient times, the journey was very arduous. One had to make a lot of other preparations for the journey such as carrying the essential luggage for meals, bed and raw material for preparing the meals. Even one had to carry water with them. If these many things are not kept together one had to starve. There were not any facilities of transportation, lodging and boarding. In case of long journey the people used to perform such long journey either in bullock cart or upon the horses. The roads were also not of good condition and therefore it took a long time to reach from one village to village and one had to perform journey taking all these aspects into consideration.

Chimanlal Chotwala was a very jolly person. Once he wanted to see the fort of Idar and so he started his journey carrying the luggage with him. Initially it was not very difficult but later on it became very risky and now he was repenting.

In the evening he took rest at the outskirts of one village, went to a well to fetch the water. At the well he requested the ladies of the village to give him water. The water was received. But now the question was how to prepare the meals? He collected the raw sticks and dry branches of trees for the fire and started cooking the hotchpotch. Since it would take time, Chimanlal thought to go for a walk in the village. While returning from the village, he found that the meals of hotchpotch were burnt. He somehow managed to collect the eatable meals from the utensils and satisfied his hunger with the burnt hotchpotch and pickles. At night he slept peacefully as he was tired of the journey of the whole day.

In the morning, he took bath at the well and started cleansing the utensils. But the burnt meals made it very difficult for Chimanlal:

“ઘણી રીતે ઘસી ઘસી થાકી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો, બહુ ડાઘ રહ્યા તોય બાકી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.”

In spite of all efforts, the utensils could not be cleansed properly. Chimanlal became very angry:

“પૂરી રીતે તપેલી ઉપાકી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયા,
સામી ભીતની સાથે પછાડી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો,
લઈ પથરો તપેલીને ફૂટી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
પડ્યાં બાકાં તપેલી તો ફૂટી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયા.”

Angry Chimanlal threw the utensil and damaged it so as to render it useless for preparing the meals. Meanwhile the ladies of the village came to the well to fetch the water. They witnessed the whole drama of Chimanlal and started laughing among themselves. The whole village came to know about the funny incident with Chimanlal.

In the afternoon, hungry Chimanlal came to the village and asked for the meals at some of the houses. But no one would give anything to this stranger.

“એને વાસણ ન આપે કોઈ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો, પછી રાગ તાણી ઘણી રોઈ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયા.”

Chimanlal started crying. People were laughing at him. Chimanlal was confused:

“તોય થઈ ન તપેલી સાજી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો, હસે લોક ને તે મરે લાજી રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.”

Dear Friends! Great Gujarati poet Dalpatram has narrated the essence of this incident in his beautiful poem:

જેથી સ્વાસ્થ આપણો જરીએ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો,
તેના ઉપર કોઈ ન કરીએ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
લાત દૂતી ગાયની ખમીએ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
તેને તજીએ તો દૂધ ક્યાં જમીએ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
કોઈની સાથે ટૂંકારે લડીએ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
એમાં આપણે હલકાં પડીએ રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
સાંખી ચાલે તે માણસ મોટું રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.
દલપત કહે નથી ખોટું રે, સુણો સાહેલિયો.

Friends! Generally a person gets irritated with his near and dear ones upon whom his life depends. He gets angry with his parents, Guru, saint, husband, wife, children, friends, businessmen, customer etc. this story precisely tells us about the consequences of such an approach. The noble intention of Bhagwan Swaminarayan is made available to the common people by this great poet Dalpatram through his little but great poem.

'What is Real Renunciation?'

- Compilation by Kotak Varshan Natvarlal (Ghodasar)

It is difficult to get two things in this life (1) Human Body and (2) Renunciation. Humanity means to have compassion towards others. Humanity means not to think ill about a person in his difficulty who may have harmed us in the past. And renunciation means to renounce worldly life with a view to achieve emancipation. We find many people following the spiritual path in their lives but there are very few people who strive to achieve emancipation in their life. We find people who wish to get emancipation but they are not found striving for that; on the contrary their life is found to be replete with the worldly affairs. Such a renunciation is temporary. Goal of a person should be to achieve emancipation even if his life may be replete with worldly affairs. There may be temporary obstacles and difficulties in achieving the ultimate goal of emancipation but one should always keep this goal before him. The time lost cannot be regained despite spending crores of rupees. One should take out time for performing Bhajan-Bhakti because no one knows when Death would knock at his door.

In this connection, there is a famous story about the King Janak. Once many Rishis come to meet the King Janak. First the king Janak met all the Rishis together and thereafter he met each of these Rishis individually and embraced them. One of the Rishis asked the reason for such personal meeting. King Janak informed that, he does not know when the Death would knock at his door so it is better that he grabs this opportunity and meets each of these great Rishis individually. Therefore, one should take out sufficient time for Bhajan and Bhakti in his life. One should live in the present and should not repent for the past.

“રાત-દિવસ રહે એવું ધ્યાન મને કેમમળે ભગવાન
મેલી ગમતું નિજ મનનું રહે હરિ આજ્ઞા અનુસાર
સાચો મુમુક્ષુ એ માનવો નિશ્ચય કરી નિરધાર.”

ભક્તિસુધા

Saint Samagam

- Sankhya Yogi Kokilaba
(Surendranagar)

When we have got Bhagwan Shree Swaminarayan in our life, we should worship Him as much as we can. We would be able to worship Him till the fitness of our body permits us so day-night, and while doing all other works, we should keep on worshipping him. In this world, a man is alone and no one can share the benefits of his good and evil deeds, so one should worship Bhagwan Swaminarayan.

Human life is very less and therefore let us worship the Almighty God as much as we can. There is Maya all around us which does not allow us to concentrate in worship and Bhajan-Bhakti. But one should understand this sooner or later because the Time is perennial and one may not get such an opportunity again in his life. So one should awaken his self and should perform real worship.

Merciful Shreeji Maharaj has granted us the pleasure of Akshardham on this earth itself. The Lord has also brought with Him, the great Saints and Parshads and if we follow the path of worship as shown by these saints, then it is certain that we would get emancipation.

Once Sura Khachar, Somla Khachar, Alaiya Khachar etc. Kathi devotees asked a question to Yogivarya Gopalanand Swami, “Whether we would get emancipation like these saints?” Gopalanand Swami said that, they would certainly get emancipation. Swami said that just a woman cherishes love and affection towards a man, she should cherish similar love and affection towards Almighty Lord and Satsang then it is certain that they would get emancipation in their lives.

Other saints of the sabha asked Gopalanand Swami, "How it is possible that these devotees living the worldly life would get the same kind of emancipation just as the saints?" Swamiji replied that, if the devotees scrupulously follow his advice of complete renunciation then they can get emancipation just as the saints get. But it is not easy.

In life a devotee cannot get knowledge about the God without a saint and without knowledge there cannot be emancipation. Therefore if they wish to get real emancipation, they should perform Samagam of the saints. Therefore we should perform Samagam of the saints regularly.

Importance of Mala

- Patel Rekhaben Kirtikumar (Unjha)

Just as a fish cannot live without water, a devotee cannot live without worshipping Almighty God. Mantra-Mala-Jap of the name of Shree Hari are the means of achieving God in life.

By performing Mala, human body is purified, one gets fame and name in the society. His inner and outer enemies are destroyed and he gets divine peace and happiness in his life. His inner self is purified. Therefore, in order to get emancipation in life, one should perform Mala regularly. It is beneficial to perform Mala of Mantra granted by Guru. Similarly it is essential that one performs Mala while remaining under the directions of Shree Hari. Following are certain rules to be observed while performing Mala:

There should be 108 beads in a Mala. This Mala should be neat and clean. Mala should be performed peacefully and with concentration in the Mantra or the name of Bhawan. There should not be any hurry while performing Mala. There should be silken Gaumukhi to preserve the Mala. This Mala should not be touched at feet and on the land. The hand and the head cannot be moved while performing Mala. If Mala is performed with complete attention, level of concentration increases tremendously. The mind should be happy, peaceful and at ease. One should not borrow from others and should not lend his Mala to others. This Mala can be of Tulsi Kast, while Chandan Kast, Amla Kast, Sfatik Rudraksh etc. If one does not have Mala, then one can count 108 Mantras from his palm.

Divine Shree Swaminarayan Museum & H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj Shri Tejendraprasadji Maharaj

1008 Shri Koshalendraprasadji Maharaj and our H.H. Shri Lalji Maharaj 108 Shri Vrajendraprasadji Maharaj.

When Shree Swaminarayan temple of Gadhpur was under construction, a pronouncement was made that, the devotees who would contribute a stone for the construction, would get emancipation and also his whole family. One Muslim person, having faith in Shreeji Maharaj, contributed a 7 k.g. weighed stone and Shreeji Maharaj granted emancipation to his 7 generations. One poor lady contributed just fifty paisa but that was also accepted with all respect and she was granted emancipation. So let us cherish all such Leela Charitra of Shreeji Maharaj and render our services for Shree Swaminarayan Musuem which is a divine Sankalp of our H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj. This divine Museum has already been associated with interesting and historical incidents of our many devotees.

The work of Shree Swaminarayan Museum is now on the verge of completion; so let us grab this divine opportunity and render our services and make our life divine and earn the right of having a place in Akshardham.

At last an humble prayer at the lotus-like feet of Lord Shree Narnarayandev and H.H. Shri Mota Maharaj that, Shreeji Maharaj may grant all the saints and devotees the divine happiness rendering their services for Sampradaya and Satsang.
